(Page 1 of 1)

42.63 EXHIBIT II DSL-988 - TRANSMITTAL LETTER

THE FOREIGN SERVICE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Dear Visa Applicant:  In connection with your desire to immigrate to the United States, the attached correspondence has been reviewed.  The paragraph checked below indicates the next step to be taken in your case. Please read it carefully and comply with the instructions. You may disregard any unchecked paragraphs.  a. You appear to be entitled to immigrant visa status since you have a relative who is a United States citizen or permanent resident alien. You should follow the instructions on the attached information sheet, Form DSL-990, Family-Sponsored Immigrant Visa Information Letter. Your relative must file with the Immigration and Naturalization Service a Form I-130, "Petition for Alien Relative," which, if approved, will be sent to the consular office of the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa.  b. Since you intend to be employed in the United States, you should follow the instructions in the attached information sheet, DSL-1081, Employment-Based Immigrant Visa Requirements. You or your prospective employer must file with the Immigration and Naturalization Service a Form I-140, "Petition For Prospective Immigrant Employee," which, if approved, will be sent to the consular office named in the petition. You will then be informed by the consular office of the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa to the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa proved, will be sent to the consular office of the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa.  c. Since you wish to qualify for an immigrant visa by investing in the United States in order to create new employment, you should obtain from the Immigration and Naturalization Service a Form I-526, "Immigrant Petition by Alien Entrepreneur," which, if approved, will be sent to the consular office of the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa.  d. Since you do not indicate that you have any status which would entitle you to an immigrant visa classification, you are advised to read carefully the att
In connection with your desire to immigrate to the United States, the attached correspondence has been reviewed.  The paragraph checked below indicates the next step to be taken in your case. Please read it carefully and comply with the instructions. You may disregard any unchecked paragraphs.  a. You appear to be entitled to immigrant visa status since you have a relative who is a United States citizen or permanent resident alien. You should follow the instructions on the attached information sheet, Form DSL-990, Family-Sponsored Immigrant Visa Information Letter. Your relative must file with the Immigration and Naturalization Service a Form I-130, "Petition for Alien Relative," which, if approved, will be sent to the consular office named in the petition. You will then be informed by the consular office of the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa.  b. Since you intend to be employed in the United States, you should follow the instructions in the attached information sheet, DSL-1081, Employment-Based Immigrant Visa Requirements. You or your prospective employer must file with the Immigration and Naturalization Service a Form I-140, "Petition For Prospective Immigrant Employee," which, if approved, will be sent to the consular office of the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa.  c. Since you wish to qualify for an immigrant visa by investing in the United States in order to create new employment, you should obtain from the Immigration and Naturalization Service a Form I-526, "Immigrant Petition by Alien Entrepreneur," which, if approved, will be sent to the consular office named in the petition. You will then be informed by the consular office of the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa.  d. Since you do not indicate that you have any status which would entitle you to an immigrant visa classification, you are advised to read carefully the attached Form OF-168, General Information For Applicants for Immigrant Visas. If none of the categories apply in your cas
The paragraph checked below indicates the next step to be taken in your case. Please read it carefully and comply with the instructions. You may disregard any unchecked paragraphs.  a. You appear to be entitled to immigrant visa status since you have a relative who is a United States citizen or permanent resident alien. You should follow the instructions on the attached information sheet, Form DSL_990, Family—Sponsored Immigrant Visa Information Letter. Your relative must file with the Immigration and Naturalization Service a Form I-130, "Petition for Alien Relative," which, if approved, will be sent to the consular office named in the petition. You will then be informed by the consular office of the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa.  b. Since you intend to be employed in the United States, you should follow the instructions in the attached information sheet, DSL-1081, Employment-Based Immigrant Visa Requirements. You or your prospective employer must file with the Immigration and Naturalization Service a Form I-140, "Petition For Prospective Immigrant Employee," which, if approved, will be sent to the consular office of the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa.  c. Since you wish to qualify for an immigrant visa by investing in the United States in order to create new employment, you should obtain from the Immigration and Naturalization Service a Form I-526, "Immigrant Petition by Alien Entrepreneur," which, if approved, will be sent to the consular office named in the petition. You will then be informed by the consular office of the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa.  d. Since you do not indicate that you have any status which would entitle you to an immigrant visa classification, you are advised to read carefully the attached Form OF-168, General Information For Applicants for Immigrant Visas. If none of the categories apply in your case, then we regret that you do not appear eligible to apply for immigrant to the United States.  This office is ple
a. You appear to be entitled to immigrant visa status since you have a relative who is a United States citizen or permanent resident alien. You should follow the instructions on the attached information sheet, Form DSL-990, Family-Sponsored Immigrant Visa Information Letter. Your relative must file with the Immigration and Naturalization Service a Form I-130, "Petition for Alien Relative," which, if approved, will be sent to the consular office named in the petition. You will then be informed by the consular office of the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa.    b. Since you intend to be employed in the United States, you should follow the instructions in the attached information sheet, DSL-1081, Employment-Based Immigrant Visa Requirements. You or your prospective employer must file with the Immigration and Naturalization Service a Form I-140, "Petition For Prospective Immigrant Employee," which, if approved, will be sent to the consular office named in the petition. You will then be informed by the consular office of the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa.    c. Since you wish to qualify for an immigrant visa by investing in the United States in order to create new employment, you should obtain from the Immigration and Naturalization Service a Form I-526, "Immigrant Petition by Alien Entrepreneur," which, if approved, will be sent to the consular office named in the petition. You will then be informed by the consular office of the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa.    d. Since you do not indicate that you have any status which would entitle you to an immigrant visa classification, you are advised to read carefully the attached Form OF-168, General Information For Applicants for Immigrant Visas. If none of the categories apply in your case, then we regret that you do not appear eligible to apply for immigration to the United States.  This office is pleased to provide information about the requirements for obtaining an immigrant visa. However, we cannot permanent resident alien. You should follow the instructions on the attached information sheet, Form DSL-990, Family—Sponsored Immigrant Visa Information Letter. Your relative must file with the Immigration and Naturalization Service a Form I-130, "Petition for Alien Relative," which, if approved, will be sent to the consular office named in the petition. You will then be informed by the consular office of the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa.    b. Since you intend to be employed in the United States, you should follow the instructions in the attached information sheet, DSL-1081, Employment-Based Immigrant Visa Requirements. You or your prospective employer must file with the Immigration and Naturalization Service a Form I-140, "Petition For Prospective Immigrant Employee," which, if approved, will be sent to the consular office named in the petition. You will then be informed by the consular office of the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa.    c. Since you wish to qualify for an immigrant visa by investing in the United States in order to create new employment, you should obtain from the Immigration and Naturalization Service a Form I-526, "Immigrant Petition by Alien Entrepreneur," which, if approved, will be sent to the consular office named in the petition. You will then be informed by the consular office of the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa.    d. Since you do not indicate that you have any status which would entitle you to an immigrant visa classification, you are advised to read carefully the attached Form OF-168, General Information For Applicants for Immigrant Visas. If none of the categories apply in your case, then we regret that you do not appear eligible to apply for immigrant to the United States.  This office is pleased to provide information about the requirements for obtaining an immigrant visa. However, we cannot assist in obtaining job offers, labor certifications, or petitions for prospective immigrant visa.
mation sheet, DSL-1081, Employment-Based Immigrant Visa Requirements. You or your prospective employer must file with the Immigration and Naturalization Service a Form I-140, "Petition For Prospective Immigrant Employee," which, if approved, will be sent to the consular office named in the petition. You will then be informed by the consular office of the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa.  C. Since you wish to qualify for an immigrant visa by investing in the United States in order to create new employment, you should obtain from the Immigration and Naturalization Service a Form I-526, "Immigrant Petition by Alien Entrepreneur," which, if approved, will be sent to the consular office named in the petition. You will then be informed by the consular office of the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa.  d. Since you do not indicate that you have any status which would entitle you to an immigrant visa classification, you are advised to read carefully the attached Form OF-168, General Information For Applicants for Immigrant Visas. If none of the categories apply in your case, then we regret that you do not appear eligible to apply for immigration to the United States.  This office is pleased to provide information about the requirements for obtaining an immigrant visa. However, we cannot assist in obtaining job offers, labor certifications, or petitions for prospective immigrants. to create new employment, you should obtain from the Immigration and Naturalization Service a Form I-526, "Immigrant Petition by Alien Entrepreneur," which, if approved, will be sent to the consular office named in the petition. You will then be informed by the consular office of the necessary steps to take to apply for an immigrant visa.  d. Since you do not indicate that you have any status which would entitle you to an immigrant visa classification, you are advised to read carefully the attached Form OF-168, General Information For Applicants for Immigrant Visas. If none of the categories apply in your case, then we regret that you do not appear eligible to apply for immigration to the United States.  This office is pleased to provide information about the requirements for obtaining an immigrant visa. However, we cannot assist in obtaining job offers, labor certifications, or petitions for prospective immigrants.
you are advised to read carefully the attached Form OF-168, General Information For Applicants for Immigrant Visas. If none of the categories apply in your case, then we regret that you do not appear eligible to apply for immigration to the United States.  This office is pleased to provide information about the requirements for obtaining an immigrant visa. However, we cannot assist in obtaining job offers, labor certifications, or petitions for prospective immigrants.
assist in obtaining job offers, labor certifications, or petitions for prospective immigrants.
No record has been made of this correspondence.
No record has been made of this correspondence.
Sincerely,
American Consular Officer
Attachments: Information Sheet Your Correspondence
LETTER DSL-988 11-91					